

Auto Theft in the 21st Century Now ~ New ~ Next

- I. Identifying current theft and fraud trends
 - A. Latest statistics and trends
 1. Theft
 2. Automotive
 - B. Keyless Systems, Transponders & Theft
 1. Keyless Entry
 2. RFID; Transponders & Immobilizers
 3. Smart Keys
 - C. Defeat & bypass techniques used by thieves
 1. How they are compromised
 2. What to look for
 3. High-Tech tools

- II. Forensic Data
 - A. Electronically stored VINs and other identifying data
 1. What data is available
 2. What components can identify a stolen vehicle
 3. Identifying VIN switches, Re-tags, Body Swings, Clones
 - B. Tools used to access electronic evidence
 1. How to access the data
 2. How to protect the data
 3. How to prevent contamination during examination

- III. Identifying component parts and how they relate to theft and/or fraud
 - A. Component part identification and what they can tell us
 1. Unique ID
 2. Date Codes & Sequence numbers
 - B. Identifying Stolen Vehicles and their Components
 1. Real thefts False thefts

- IV. Global Trends and their relationship to the U.S.
 - A. What happens in Malaysia and Madrid effects the U.S.
 - B. What our stolens are used for overseas
 1. Wars, Disasters, Terrorism, Economy
 - C. Identifying the rings
 1. What can MO tell us

Presented by ICI POST Auto Theft Instructor Mike Bender;
For CV or Bio contact: mike@vintrack.com (619) 980-2849

Develop the Advanced Skills needed for Theft & Fraud Recognition through Comprehensive, Dependable & Contemporary training offered on the latest evolving trends effecting the insurance industry, law enforcement, automotive industry, and public!
Auto theft task forces, patrol officers, claims managers, SIU, estimators, adjustors, manufacturers, underwriters...have continued to praise training offered by Bender Enterprises Inc.
Read what others have said about Mike Bender's training at <http://vintrack.com/training.htm>